Dear Miss Weston;

I went yesterday to the City Marshal's Office and saw the articles found upon the man in question, & believed to be taken from the boxes in Dr. Taft's Office. There was one entire packet of De La Rue's Note paper, a variety of single sheets, numerous packets of small sized envelopes, two fancy small portfolios made with pasteboard, &c. Some music, and one of De La Rue's blank music books. The entire value of the articles there is not, I think, over $5. I would not swear to these articles, but I am very confident

They were taken from the Bazaar boxes. Bearse says that he is very confident that these ~~there~~^{are} but a very small proportion of the articles gone from the boxes.
I suppose we shall ~~be~~ not know certainly how this is, until you examine the boxes. They are now, Bearse says, in a state of great confusion. Some of them, at least.

Your brother went to the Marshal's Office with us.

I am, Yrs. truly
